Hello, my name's Elaine, and I'm from England. My question was, do you like to make your own clothes? I wish I could make my own clothes. I have tried, but I don't have the patience. My mom's actually a costume designer, and so when I was little she used to make all my clothes for me. I had lots of beautiful party dresses and nobody else had anything like them. In fact, my mom even bought me a sewing machine for my birthday last year. I haven't had much time to learn how to use it. I really like buying vintage clothes or secondhand clothes and adjusting them. So I will try to, for example, if a dress is too long, I will try to take it up. Or if something is too wide, I will try to take it in. Maybe sometimes I like to change a button or to make it more beautiful. I find this is also an ecological way of shopping. It's a bit unusual, and I don't want to dress like everyone else. But what about you? Do you make your own clothes? Do you modernize or revamp your clothes? Let us know.	make it smaller   to tell   make it shorter   improve   eco-friendly   Not using straws is _____ to drink. I've lost weight so I must _____ all my pants. I like to paint my sneakers to _____ them. _____ me _____ when you want to come over. My skirt is too long, could you _____, please?
