

Talks 27 - Dreams of Football

Growing up, I had _____ [wanted/wants/want] to become a footballer. Whenever I watched people play football _____ [is/as/us/] a child, I was always wowed _____ [by/bye/buy] the sheer display of strengthened commitment on the pitch. And oh, the _____ [sense/since/cents/] of excitement that comes _____ [at/with/for] victory, that comes with winning a football match, was _____ [captivate/captivated/captivating/]. Unfortunately, I could not become a _____ [footballs/football/footballer], but I still enjoy the _____ [gamer/games/game]. Anytime I watch football, I remember that this _____ [used/uses/use] to be my dream career as a young boy _____ [growing/grown/grew] up in Ghana.
