

Hi. I'm Ozlem and I'm from Turkey. Here is ____ (my / on) question: Who do you speak English ____ (at / with)?

I work ____ (is / as) an ESL teacher in a private school here ____ (in / at) Turkey. At school, as a ____ (generally / general) rule, we do not speak our native language because we believe our ____ (students / student) should be surrounded by the second language ____ (them / they) learn, which is English in our ____ (cause / case). So, we try to speak English everywhere anytime we are with ____ (they / them). In the process of language learning, there are four ____ (skills / skill) students should acquire: Reading, writing, listening, and speaking, and speaking is the ____ (productive / production) skill. This ____ (means / meaning) if students, if they need to improve ____ (these / this) skill, they need to ____ (productive / produce).

Anyway, ____ (apart / a part) from that, I have many other colleagues and ____ (nation / native) friends, so we always ____ (speak / speaking) English together. But if you do not have people ____ (within / around) you speaking English, you can also ____ (found / find) friends online or you can have an English tutor to ____ (practice / practical) online. That's it. Thank you and see you. ____ (Bye / By).
