

How often do I ____ (used / use) public transport?

Pretty ____ (more / much) never these days. I recently moved ____ (at / to) New Orleans, as we ____ (pronounce / pronunciation) it here, New Orleans. New Orleans, Louisiana: NOLA.

There's very ____ (limited / limit) public transport in New Orleans. There's a great street ____ (car / care), a tram, as I would ____ (call / catch) it. But I'm more of a ____ (walking / walker). I love walking. If something's ____ (closet / close) enough, I'll walk there. And having ____ (recently / recent) had a baby and things being ____ (quite / quiet) far away in New Orleans, we had ____ (to / a) buy a car. I haven't driven a car ____ (since / sense) I was in Japan about 10 years ago. But a car is ____ (kind / kindly) of essential here.

When I'm in ____ (another / other) cities, I do like to walk or ____ (got / get) public transportation. I love ____ (trains / train) and long-distance buses, but ____ (unfortunately / unfortunate) reality nowadays means that in a big city ____ (in / like) New Orleans, I need to ____ (drive / driver) a car. So I do.